ARRANGE TO HOLD

BIG 'WILSON RALLY'

Woman's National Democratic League to Meet This Evening in Southern Building.

Another "Wilson Rally" will be held by the Women's National Democratic League this evening at 8 o'clock in the assembly room of the Wilson-Marshall District headquarters in the Southern Building.

Encouraged by the success of the rally held last week in the New Willard, the league postponed the all-franco rendition of an act from "As You Like It" until August 22. In order to hold the rally to-night, at the rally held last week, many new members enrolled themselves in the league.

Senator William D. Smith of South Carolina, Kyle R. Price, and Dr. Clarence Owen, managing director of the Southern National Congress, will address the gathering.

Miss Katherine Dabney, founder of the League, states that the work is going on rapidly all over the country, and says that notices of convincing results can soon be given.

The District branch of the organization plans to hold something new every week. The women will make use of the offices of the Wilson-Marshall for headquarters for the present, these rooms having been courteously placed at their disposal.

On August 22, Mrs. Maud Howell Smith will give an open-air production of an act from "As You Like It." She will be assisted by a company of amateurs, with whom she has made many ventures into private theatricals.

Miss Mary Kennedy Graham, a much-feted debutante of last winter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Graham, yesterday at noon became the bride of Ensign Raymond Gifford Payne, U. S. N. The wedding took place in the apartment of the bride's parents in the Ironquois, Rev. Edward S. Hale, assistant rector of the Church of the Ascension, performing the ceremony, only a small number of relatives and intimate friends of both families being present.

The rooms were decorated with the yellow and gold colors of the navy, and a string orchestra rendered the music before and after the ceremony, and during the wedding breakfast. The bride was given in marriage by her father. She was gowned beautifully in white satin, draped in embroidered white cloth, and caught with orange blossoms. She wore a tulle veil and coronet of orange blossoms and carried a shower bouquet of bride roses and lilies of the valley. A gift of the bridegroom, a diamond and pearl pendant, was the only ornament worn.

Miss Marion Wellman, daughter of the Rev. Edwin Wellman, of Pittsburg, a cousin of the bride, was the latter's only attendant. Her gown was of white satin, veiled in white marquisette, and she carried yellow roses. Mrs. Graham, mother of the bride, who was seated at the head of the table, wore a gown of white, trimmed with duchesse lace, and her ornaments were rare pearls. Mrs. Albert Payne, the bridegroom's mother, wore black lace over satin. In the late afternoon, Ensign Payne and his bride left for their honeymoon trip. Mrs. Payne wearing a smart gown of changeable brown and gold taffeta. Mrs. Payne is now domiciled at Old Point Comfort, where they will make their home at present. Mr. and Mrs. Albert Payne, of Indiana, parents of the bridegroom, and the Rev. Edwin Wellman and Mrs. Wellman, uncle and aunt of the bride, were among those present from out of town.

An interesting naval wedding of yesterday was that of Miss Helen Du Bose, daughter of Medical Director W. B. Du Bose, U. S. N., and Mrs. Du Bose, and Dr. Luther Sheldon, Jr., U. S. N., which took place at 1 o'clock in the home of the bride's parents, 1834 Kalorama Road, Chaplain J. Livingston, U. S. N., officiated, in the presence of a small family party and a few close friends. The house was attractively decorated with hydrangeas, ferns, and palms. Music for the ceremony and afterward was given by a string orchestra. The bride wore a handsome wedding gown of white crepe net, trimmed in duchesse lace, the helmet veil of tulle being held in place with a wreath of lilies of the valley, and she carried a shower bouquet of the latter.

The bride was attended only by her sister as maid of honor. Her dress was of white chiffon, and she carried pink asters. The bridegroom's brother, Dr. Thomas Sheldon, was best man. The bride's mother wore a beautiful embroidered gown of embroidered crepe. After an informal reception, Dr. and Mrs. Sheldon left for the honeymoon trip, the bride wearing a much taller gown of dark blue. The parents of Dr. Sheldon, Mr. and Mrs. Luther Sheldon, of Norfolk, Va., were among the out-of-town guests. Dr. Sheldon is stationed at present on the U. S. S. Albatross.

Mrs. Knight and Miss Alice Margaret Knight, wife and daughter of Lieut. Col. John T. Knight, U. S. A., who have spent the early part of the summer at the Soldiers' Home with Mrs. Knight's father, Lieut. Gen. F. B. M. Young, governor of the home, left last evening for California to join Col. Knight at his new station, Fort Mason, Cal. Knight and his sons went to Fort Mason in the early spring to establish their new home there. Mrs. Knight was not sufficiently recovered from a recent illness to accompany them, but she will visit them at that time.

Mrs. Edkins, widow of Senator Stephen R. Edkins, and Miss Katherine Edkins, who have been at the North Beach, Md. resort, left yesterday for New York, with Mr. and Mrs. Blaine Edkins are sailing to-day on the America for Europe. They have been at the White Sulphur Springs for a month.

A quiet wedding yesterday morning in the parsonage of McKendree Methodist Episcopal Church was that of Miss Clara E. Pitman and Mr. Frank J. Herchbold, Jr., both of the city. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Lillian Herchbold, and the bridegroom by his brother, Mr. John Herchbold. The bride wore a gown of white, trimmed with orange blossoms, and she carried a shower bouquet of bride roses and lilies of the valley. The bridegroom wore a tuxedo and carried a sword. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father Griffin of St. Augustine's, Rev. Father Hannan of St. Martin's, Rev. Father Beasly of the Church of the Immaculate Conception, and Rev. Father Eckenrode of the Shrine of the Sacred Heart. Only relatives and immediate friends of both families being present. Rev. Father McGee, pastor of the church, officiated, assisted by Rev. Father Griffin of St. Augustine's, Rev. Father Hannan of St. Martin's, Rev. Father Beasly of the Church of the Immaculate Conception, and Rev. Father Eckenrode of the Shrine of the Sacred Heart. The bride's gown was a surprise effect in white crepe de chine with pearls, trimmed with orange blossoms, and she carried a shower bouquet of bride roses and lilies of the valley. She was given in marriage by her father, who was assisted by her sister, Miss Lillian Herchbold. The bridegroom was assisted by his brother, Mr. John Herchbold. The ceremony was performed by Rev.
